What is PRRES?

PRRES stands for the Pacific Rim Real Estate Society. It is a non-profit organisation established in 1993 to provide a formal focus for property researchers, educators and practitioners in the Pacific-Rim Region. PRRES now has over 120 members from Australia, New Zealand, Papua New Guinea, Fiji, Hong Kong, Thailand, Singapore, China, Indonesia, Malaysia and Korea. In the duration of your course PRRES members' research will be of relevance to your studies.

Why should I join PRRES?

From a student perspective PRRES has a great deal to offer.

- ◆ You receive subscription to the Pacific Rim Property Research Journal - published quarterly. The Journal has the latest property research which can assist you with your course.
- ◆ You become part of an organisation containing property professionals and researchers from many countries in the Pacific Rim. This provides an opportunity to network.
- ◆ PRRES is strongly supported and respected by institutional sponsors and members
- ◆ It allows you to access up-to-date research and information via the PRRES website.
- ◆ You receive a newsletter detailing recent PRRES happenings.
- ◆ There is strong encouragement to attend the annual PRRES Conference with a discounted Conference fee for full-time research students and a separate 1-day Post-Graduate Colloquium.
- ◆ PRRES provides substantial support and encouragement for higher degree research students.
- ◆ Annual membership fee for students is only $20.
- ◆ On initial joining of PRRES, pay for 1 year ($A20), receive 2 YEARS' membership.
- ◆ FULL-TIME POST-GRADUATE RESEARCH STUDENTS, membership is now FREE. (just complete the personal information below.
